

PIPER TRUST
Encore Career Prize
for an Exceptional Individual

Being Selfless Has Its Rewards

The Piper Trust Encore Career Prize recognizes the social purpose work of a person, age 50+, who is an inspiring encore role model for applying years of experience and talent to a social cause in Maricopa County.

Mike McQuaid | Board President, Human Services Campus
2013 Piper Trust Encore Career Prize Awardee

Nominate Now for the 2015 Piper Trust Encore Career Prize

WHO?

Someone, age 50+, leading a significant social purpose effort in Maricopa County

WHAT?

A $50,000 award recognizing an exceptional encore role model

WHEN?

Nomination
Deadline:
June 15, 2015

Learn more at pipertrust.org/encore

Trailblazer Change-Maker Experienced Passionate

Meet Mike McQuaid

BOARD PRESIDENT, HUMAN SERVICES CAMPUS
2013 Piper Trust Encore Career Prize Awardee

Mike McQuaid will do whatever it takes to end homelessness. By applying decades of experience as a commercial real estate developer to his encore career, Mike collaborated with elected officials, county administrators, and business and nonprofit leaders to build the Human Services Campus—the first of its kind in the nation and a national model.

Learn more and nominate a 2015 encore role model
at pipertrust.org/encore

Mike McQuaid at the Human Services Campus in Phoenix — home to more than a dozen agencies working to achieve a sustainable end to homelessness for Maricopa County's men and women.

ABOUT THE PIPER TRUST ENCORE CAREER PRIZE FOR AN EXCEPTIONAL INDIVIDUAL

Approximately 10,000 people turn 65 every day — the golden age of retirement — yet, many aren't retiring in traditional ways, or at all. There are more than 1 million people in Maricopa County age 50+. Piper Trust recognizes that this talented human resource pool seeks to help solve social problems by applying experience and innovation to meaningful work which enhances and strengthens the quality of life in our community.